

The bwtarif tickets.

Discover Baden-Württemberg in all its beauty with the bwtarif.

Simply modern.  bwtarif
One destination, one ticket. All across the state.

Welcome to Baden-Württemberg, Welcome to bwtarif

Regardless of which means of transport and which transport network you're travelling on, with bwtarif, you need just one ticket to travel across the network to all destinations in Baden-Württemberg. You can travel across the state on regional and local trains as well as on the S-Bahn, city trains and buses – in comfort and without having to find a parking space. If you're travelling on several transport networks, why not try the affordable bwtarif to reach your destination. If your trip remains within one network, the fares of the respective network apply. bwtarif tickets are available at train stations (ticket machines and travel centre) or you can buy a convenient e-ticket (from bahn.de, bw-ticket.de, bwApp and DB-Navigator app).

Lots of Destinations, one Ticket: Excursions in Baden-Württemberg

The Center for Art and Media Karlsruhe

- The ZKM Centre for Art and Media Karlsruhe is one of the world's most important museums, currently fourth in the ArtFacts ranking of world museums
- The Museum was founded in 1989 with the mission of continuing the classical arts into the digital age. Today it is a globally unique cultural institution, a "Mecca of the media arts" and a place of learning, research and exchange
- The Museum brings together all media and artistic genres. Arts such as painting, photography and sculpture are highlighted in thematic exhibitions, but film, video, media art, music, dance, theatre and performance are also showcased at the ZKM
- Located next door to the Museum is the Filmpalast at the ZKM, an outstanding multiplex cinema

Directions: Departing Karlsruhe main station, take S-Bahn Line 2 to the ZKM stop

Radolfzell am Bodensee

- Radolfzell is located on the shores of the Untersee, Lower Lake Constance, about 20 kilometres north-west of Konstanz
- No other place on Lake Constance has such a long walkable stretch of shoreline as Radolfzell. A stroll on the lakeside path is therefore almost a must
- From the ruins of Homburg Castle you can enjoy a magnificent panoramic view of the Lake, the Alps and the hills of the Bodanrück

Directions: Departing Konstanz, Überlingen, Friedrichshafen, Singen, Engen, Basel and Karlsruhe, you can reach Radolfzell by train without changing. The Höri bus connects Radolfzell and the towns on the peninsula with Stein am Rhein

Heidelberg Castle

- World-famous Heidelberg Castle is an icon of German Romanticism
- Today only its ruins remain, but they still offer spectacular views
- With its picturesque bridge into the Old Town and its impressive architecture, a stroll through Heidelberg is always a special experience

Directions: Departing Heidelberg main station, take bus 33 or 20 to the stop/station of the funicular railway that leads to the Castle

Treetop Walk Black Forest

- Set in an idyllic location on the Sommerberg in Bad Wildbad, from the Treetop Walk you can discover this unique forest landscape from a completely new perspective
- At 1,250 metres long and up to 20 metres high, the Walk meanders through the majestic mixed mountain forest, taking in numerous learning and activity stations
- The highlight is the 40-metre-high, architecturally unique observation tower
- The Walk and the observation tower are easily accessible for wheelchairs and buggies

Directions: Departing Bad Wildbad station, the summer funicular railway takes visitors to the mountain station, from which the Treetop Walk is only a few minutes' walk away

Outletcity Metzingen

- Nestling under the Swabian Jura and around 30 kilometres south of Stuttgart, Metzingen features a fashion outlet experience to rival international fashion capitals
- A wide range of premium and luxury brands from A for Armani to Z for Zegna make Outletcity the go-to destination for fashionistas
- The city of Metzingen offers a combination of nature and architecture, and the city's traditions as a former textiles centre can be experienced everywhere

Directions: From Metzingen main station, you can walk to Outletcity in just a few minutes

www.outletcity.com/en/metzingen/

Hohenzollern Castle

- Located at the edge of the Swabian Jura, the Castle is not a museum in the traditional sense but a living place that attracts hundreds of thousands of visitors from all over the world every year
- Art lovers can marvel at the collection of paintings, precious silver and porcelain as well as the Prussian king's crown
- The Castle is a popular venue for concerts, open-air cinema and a Christmas market, among other attractions
- Lots of hiking routes offer stunning views of the Castle in the distance

Directions: Departing Hechingen train station, a bus goes directly to Hohenzollern Castle

Tickets are only available from the online shop.
